

I believe that increasing the number of media outlets allowed under the ownership of one company would have a detrimental affect on free speech in this country. The FCC laws written in the 1930's may need some "tweaking" at times but are not in need of such drastic, potentially disastrous changes that are currently being proposed.